

Sponsorship Opportunities: Coffee & Conversation with Congressman Jake Auchincloss

Thursday, May 28th
8:00 to 10:00 AM
at GlenPharmer Distillery
860 West Central Street
Franklin, MA 02038

Join us as we convene 100 leaders in business, government, higher education, and the nonprofit sector from across the region to hear from United States Congressman Jake Auchincloss as he offers remarks on the impact of federal policy decisions on area businesses, followed by a moderated Q&A.

As a sponsor, your organization will be prominently featured to our network of over 1,500+ leadership contacts via email, social media, and event materials – positioning you as a leader in support of regional growth and innovation.

Why You Should Sponsor:

- High-Profile Visibility: Put your brand in front of influential leaders and stakeholders driving economic development in 495/MetroWest.
- Strategic Connections: Engage directly with policymakers, municipal officials, and corporate leaders shaping the region's future.
- Policy Alignment: Support your regional economic development organization that advocates for infrastructure, workforce development, transportation, energy, and housing —issues that directly impact our communities and businesses.

Sponsorship Commitments are due Thursday, May 14th

To sponsor, email Executive Director
Jason Palitsch at Jason@495Partnership.org
